NOTICE.

Comrades who have not paid their dues for 1884 are earnestly requested to remit the same to the Treasurer. The matter of the financial condition of the Association is a vital one. It is the desire of those charged with its management to report no debt, and a reasonable balance in the treasury, next year. Remit to E. C. BEACH, 217 North High street, Columbus, O.

RE-UNION NOTICE.

Comrades will bear in mind that Chillicothe is the place selected for our next reunion, the first Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1885. Chillicothe has eleven thousand inhabitants, and is the principal town in the Scioto Valley. It has been the home of three of Ohio's most noted Governors, and on Cemetery Hill rest the remains of Massie, McArthur and Allen. It was the early capital and metropolis of the State. Looking northeast can be seen the hill and valley from which the great seal of Ohio was caught. Its people now, as well as during the war, are noted for their staunch loyalty, their appreciation of the soldier, and for genuine hospitality. Hotel accommodations are good, there being several small hotels in addition to the Warner, Emmet, Commercial and St. James. Three lines of railway, with their various connections, make the place easily accessible from all parts of the State. For places in which large meetings can be held, the town is peculiarly well adapted as a place for our reunions, being possessed of a rink, which will seat two thousand people, as well as two Opera Houses of a capacity of eight hundred each. Let us see if we cannot make this the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the kind yet held. Let each comrade make preparations to attend, and bring his family and friends also. Gatherings of this kind will not only interest the people at large in the ex-prisoners of war, but may lead Congress to see the necessity of doing something for the benefit of ex-prisoners of war. Don't fail to be on hand.

MINUTES

OF THE

OHIO ASSOCIATION OF UNION EX-PRISONERS OF WAR.

TUESDAY, JULY 29, 1884.

Long before the hour of meeting the comrades began to report and register at their headquarters, City Hall, Dayton, Ohio. The hall had been handsomely decorated with banners, mottoes and pictures, and presented quite a pleasing appearance. As the old comrades would meet those whom they had not seen for a year, it was with a hearty shake of the hand and many congratulations that they had been spared to meet again. Occasionally a couple would recognize each other whom they had not seen for twenty years—the last time they parted was in some Southern prison pen. The boys would congregate in groups about the hall and talk over old scenes and incidents of prison life. Among the comrades present and mostly recognized by the ex-prisoners were T. J. Sheppard, of Zanesville, Ohio, ex-Chaplain of Andersonville; Robert H. Kellogg, of Cincinnati, author of "Life and Death in Southern Prisons;" and James T. Harvey, of Adamsville, Ohio, of Libby Prison fame; also Frank W. Smith, of Toledo, who had visited Andersonville twice during the past year. President O'Neill did not arrive till about eleven o'clock. Then the Association was called to order. The exercises were opened by singing "Nearer, My God to Thee," after which Rev. George Mussen, of Mt. Vernon, led in prayer. Chaplain Sheppard presented each member with a copy of selections of music, containing such pieces as were frequently sung in Andersonville at the religious and other meetings there. After singing a couple of pieces from the selection, as the comrades were constantly arriving, the Association decided to adjourn till evening, which time would be devoted to an experience meeting. Also that a religious experience meeting be held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Wednesday morning at 8:30 a. m., and that the President deliver his annual address at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, when more of the comrades would be present.

TUESDAY EVENING, 8 P. M., JULY 29.

At this time the hall was well filled with ex-prisoners and their friends, with Vice President A. W. McCormick, of Cincinnati, in the chair. After singing and prayer by Rev. Jas. Harvey of Adamsville, Ohio, Col. McCormick announced that the exercises of the evening would consist in prison experiences by comrades. Dr. C. O. Wright was the first one called upon for his experience, who said he could not understand why he was selected, but responded in quite a neat speech, relating to his experience and what he had seen of prison life. Comrade Jas. B. Pumphrey, of Kenton, was the next to respond and related that he, with other officers confined with him in Libby, had watched their comrades marching through the muddy streets of Richmond on their way to Belle Isle, and how eagerly they would pick the pieces or corn bread from the mud which had been thrown to them by the officers from behind the bars in that prison.

He also told how he succeeded in getting a Reb. at Danville to cash a "Power of Attorney" which he drew up, using all the law terms imaginable, for which the Reb. gave him $100 in Confederate money. He gave $85 of it for a pair of No. 11 shoes, and then made his escape, arriving in our lines at Knoxville. A short time after, Mr. Pumphrey being in Washington city, was shown the paper purchased from him by the Confederate, and was told by the officers that it would not be necessary for him to pay it.

The next comrade to speak was E. C. Beach, of Columbus, Treasurer of the Association. He related the circumstances of his capture at Stone River, incidents of his prison life, the effect it had upon his character, etc.—the pleasure it afforded him to meet the comrades along with whom he had endured suffering and privations.

W. J. Behymer, of Madisonville, stated that he was confined altogether seventeen months, and when almost starved at Belle Isle, how they killed a Rebel sergeant's dog, and feasted upon the same. He spoke of their treatment in different prisons, and how the men were punished for small offenses by being placed in the stocks. He urged the comrades to consider the importance of these annual meetings, and that each comrade make it his business to attend regularly.

Rev. W. A. Airhart, of Beach City, Ohio, was called upon, and responded with one of the best speeches of the evening. Comrade Airhart said this was the first time he attended a meeting of ex-prisoners of war. He was captured in Kilpatrick's raid around Atlanta, was in several prisons, and thinks he suffered more at Florence, S. C., than at any other.

Geo. Musson, of Mt. Vernon, was the next. Comrade Musson spoke at some length in regard to his experience, which was listened to with much interest by the comrades. His principal imprisonment was at Andersonville, and was one of the last prisoners confined there; was running at large with others in the neighborhood after Andersonville had been abandoned; was retaken by Wilson's cavalry in the latter part of April, 1865.

Franklin Moore, of the Soldier's Home, ex-Private Co. H. 124th Ohio, was captured at Chicamauga; was confined at Bell Isle, Smith's Landing and Danville. Comrade Moore made his second escape. The last and successful one was from Danville through a tunnel. After traveling for nearly one month he arrived at the Union lines. The Secretary wishes to say to the comrades that you want to get acquainted with Frank Moore, of Dayton. He was a brave and daring soldier, and you will find him now a true comrade, ever ready and willing to assist and encourage any of the boys.

W. McFadden, of Mt. Vernon, formerly of the 59th O. V. I., was noticed in the audience and loudly called for, and was finally pulled out and led to the stage. He was captured at Petersburg, and after five months at Libby, made his escape to our lines, arriving at Knoxville the latter part of November, 1864. Adjourned.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30.

After a very interesting religious experience meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms, the Association assembled at the City Hall. For a short while the religious experiences were continued, several of the comrades speaking, after which Col. McCormick called the Association to order. A committee, consisting of Robt. H. Kellogg, Geo. Musson and W. J. Behymer, appointed to audit accounts and statements of the Treasurer and Secretary, reported that they had examined the same, and had found them correct. On motion, the report was accepted and committee discharged. At this hour Judge O'Neill took the chair and proceeded to deliver the following address, which was listened to with intense interest and frequently applauded :

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT.

COMRADES: In conformity to our Constitution, I come to perform my last duty as President of our Association. One year ago, you, unexpectedly and against my desire, re-elected me. For that mark of your esteem and confidence allow me to again thank you. We have again assembled in annual reunion, to talk over, not alone the long, weary march, the bivouac and the battle, where our comrades fell thick and fast, in front, to the rear, on the right, and to the left, torn by shell and pierced by bullets, the ground itself baptized in their blood, the furrows turned to rivulets, flowing with the rich blood of heroic patriotism. Not alone the suffering endured in the hospital of pain, with no wife, mother, sister or loved one to speak words of comfort or consolation, to soothe the pain or wipe away the cold, clammy sweat of death. Much as we love each other as comrades, we are bound by stronger ties. Our love was welded not alone in the fiery furnace of battle, but in the prison-pen, cemented by starvation, by death—a cruel, lingering death, but to the hero of a hundred fought battles and of months of starvation, a welcome death, the sole reward of bravery, patriotism, heroism and christian fortitude. Had we not seen with our own eyes, had we not ourselves suffered and endured the starvation, had we not ourselves been eaten by vermin, had we not ourselves been hunted and mangled by bloodhounds, had we not ourselves been poisoned by the filth of our own camp, had we not been rotted by scurvý, eaten by maggots, stung by the maggot-flies, frozen by the piercing cold, baked by the almost meridian sun, we could not believe that it was possible for men, patriots, heroes, to suffer what you know and I know, comrades, we did suffer.

We could not believe that the country we love so dearly had cost so much. The men who placed their lives, their all, on the altar of their country and went forth to battle were heroes. The men who, day after day, week after week, month after month, patiently starved and rotted without a murmur, for the sake of their country, freely giving their lives for it, were more than heroes, they were heroic martyrs.

Let us not forget, let us ever remember, that the volunteer soldier, in the War of the Rebellion, was the citizen of the day before our flag was fired upon and the day after peace had been restored. Men unused to war; men filled with love of home, love of peace—citizen soldiers.

The world never before saw such an army. It was composed of the best citizens of our country. We fought not for conquest, not for power, not for glory, not for booty or plunder, but for the country we had learned to love, because of its benefits to mankind.

More than a million and a half, fathers, brothers and husbands, were transformed from citizens into citizen soldiers. A million and a half of the most patriotic citizens the sun ever shone upon laid aside the implements of industry and husbandry, left the farm, the forge, the bench, the mine, the shop, the factory, the office, the pulpit, donned the blue uniform, and went forth to battle for liberty, universal freedom, for country, for God, for right, aye, for home, pledging to each other their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor. Went forth to battle beneath their dear old flag. "Old Glory," we used to call it, with its pure white stripes, emblematic of the purity of our cause; the crimson red, emblematic of the rich blood so freely shed; with its blue field, studded with beautiful stars, diamonds of heaven, as if placed there by the hand of an unseen angel, to seal the approbation of God.

"The War of the Rebellion cost 400,000 loyal lives. It made 300,000 Union soldiers and sailors cripples for life. It left more than a million devoted mothers, sisters and orphans to mourn for loved ones, who did not return." Our own State, Ohio, furnished about 350,000, or one-eighth of the total number of enlistments; 24,591 of whom never returned; 6,536 were killed in battle; 4,674 died from wounds, 13,387 died from disease, in hospitals. This does not include the great number who died in Rebel prisons from wounds and disease, and those who have died since the war. Think of it! This is more than all the men killed, wounded and captured, if we except Saratoga and Yorktown, during the war of the Revolution.

Of the million and a half who enlisted, about 188,000 were captured; only 94,000 were actual prisoners of war. We have found the graves of 47,000 who died while in prison. 3,500 died during the month of August, 1864, at Andersonville. It is estimated that only about 28,500, out of the 94,000 who were actual prisoners of war, are now living; that 65,000 of the 94,000 who were actual prisoners of war are now dead. Does not this fearful mortality speak louder than denials by Ben Hill or the Southern Historic Society?

Are the stories of the suffering, starving, rotting of our prisoners in the prison pens, true? During the month of June, there were crowded into Andersonville prison 26,367 prisoners; they were so closely crowded together that if the stockade had been divided, and each prisoner assigned an equal portion, each would have received just 33 2-10 square feet of ground. After deducting the dead line and swamp, the actual allotment to each prisoner would be a strip of ground 6 feet long and one foot inside. In proof of this statement I call Col. D. T. Chandler, Assistant Adjutant and Inspecting General of the so-called Confederate States of America. See his sworn statement, page 142, Report of the Committee on the Treatment of Prisoners of War. To the court he says: "Six feet long by one foot inside, excluding the ground that ought not to have been occupied, though they did necessarily occupy some of the swampy ground." On this allotment of ground had to be performed all the offices of life. Col. Chandler further says: "That he recommended the removal of Gen. Winder, and the substitution in his place of some one who united both energy and good judgment, with some feeling of humanity and consideration for the welfare and comfort (so far as consistent with their safe keeping) of the vast number of unfortunates placed under his control; some one who would not deliberately and in cold blood advocate the propriety of leaving them in their present condition until their number had been sufficiently reduced to make their present arrangement sufficient for their accommodation; who would not make it a matter of self-laudation and boasting that he had never been inside the stockade, a place the horrors of which it is difficult to describe, and is a disgrace to civilization; the condition of which he might, by the exercise of a little energy and judgment, even with the limited means at his command, have considerably improved." Excuse me if I pause long enough pay my respects to the wretched brute, Winder. It was he of whom the Richmond Examiner exclaimed: "Thank God that Richmond is at last rid of Old Winder. God have mercy upon those to whom he has been sent." It was he who, at the end of August, pointed with pride to the 3,500 new-made graves just outside the stockade at Andersonville, and boastingly said, "I am doing more for the Confederacy than all the generals in the field; see here what I have done." God, in His infinite mercy, on New Year's Day, at Florence, South Carolina, just as the brute was preparing to sit down to a banquet of whisky and wine (while, just on the inside of the stockade, 15,000 prisoners were starving), struck him dead.

I again ask, is the story of the suffering in Rebel prisons true? Go with me to yonder cemetery of the stockade of Andersonville, where lie 13,714 of our comrades, fathers and brothers; go with me to Richmond, where 6,542 lie buried; go with me to Danville, where 1,323 brave heroes sleep the long sleep of death; go with me through the South, where the bones of more than 47,000 of our comrades lie parching beneath the sands; go with me to the graves of 65,000 heroic dead. Let us ask the question: Is the story of the suffering in Rebel prisons true? I think I hear the answer, "Aye, too true."

Who shall tell of the sacrifices, the sufferings, of the heroism of these brave defenders of our nation's honor, integrity, life? Who shall tell of their marches by day and by night, in sunshine and storm, through dust, mud and swamp, of bivouac and battle, of hospital and prison? Who shall tell of the anguish and anxiety of mothers whose boys were on yonder field of battle, amid the roar of artillery, the clashing of sabres and the volleys of musketry? Who shall tell of the nights of waiting and longing for the return of husband and father; while he suffered and starved and rotted in Rebel prison? Yet, we can not; must not, leave these things out of the account, in counting the cost of our beloved Union.

But, my comrades, let us turn from this dark picture, and look for a moment upon the other side. Let us thank God that our comrades died not in vain. Our Union, threatened with destruction, has been restored. Looking down into the dark, awful abyss, we saw four millions of human slaves. We saw their gaping wounds; we heard the cry of anguish; we heard the sobs of mother and child, parted on the auction block. We reached down, down, down, and lifted them up, up, up, into the sunlight of liberty. Made them free, endowed them with citizenship, and crowned them with the right of franchise, and forever wiped out the curse of human slavery, and removed the bone of contention. To-day the beautiful emblem of the free waves in peace and triumph over a united, free, happy, prosperous people. Comrades, we marched, bivouacked, suffered, rotted and starved, not for a section of our country; not for the North, not for the South, but for all. Let us thank God that it was as it was. Long live the Nation!

I must pause. I must say something about the purpose and aim of our Association. In explanation, I cannot do better than to read from the Constitution. It says the objects are:

1. To hold annual reunions of Union ex-prisoners of war, and thereby renew, keep alive and vigorous the affections, sympathies and kindred experiences engendered and shared during imprisonment in Rebel prison pens.

2. To preserve and hand down to posterity historical facts, as set forth by individual testimony, as to the character of those prisons, and the sufferings therein endured for the Nation's life and the principle at issue in the war.

3. To cultivate a spirit of forgiveness towards those who bore arms against the Union and applied torture to Union prisoners of war, under the influence of a degrading institution and teachings of a treasonable character dominating their better manhood.

4. To give substantial aid, as far as practicable, to unfortunate and destitute comrades.

The second object of our Association is to preserve and hand down to posterity historic facts set forth by individual testimony. Allow me to again suggest that a more efficient way of doing this would be for each comrade to furnish to the secretary a brief sketch of his prison life, giving date and place of birth, date of enlistment and discharge, company, regiment and rank, date and place of capture, with any incidents of hardship endured while imprisoned, confining said history say to two or three hundred words. Let the same be published with our minutes, the comrades paying the extra expense, which, in my opinion, would be but trifling. In this way a very valuable history of life in Rebel prisons might be obtained, and in this way only can any thing like a history ever be handed down to posterity. We are anxious that every comrade in the State should join with us and aid our Association in the good work already begun. I will read the section referring to membership:

ARTICLE V.—MEMBERSHIP.

SEC. 1. Any Union ex-prisoner of war, honorably discharged from the service, may become a member of the Association by assenting to the constitution and by-laws, and registering his name, place of residence, company and regiment, or command, in which he served; date and place of capture, and place and period of imprisonment; it being understood that his statements in registering are based upon his honor.

SEC. 2. The membership dues shall be fifty cents, payable on registering for membership, and thereafter on or before each succeeding reunion, except in case membership is held in a Division or District Association, as hereinafter provided, in which case the Executive Committee shall fix the rate per capita to be assessed each year, such assessment not to exceed fifty cents per capita.

Allow me to urge each comrade to become a recruiting officer for this Association. A complete and perfect list of the comrades in Ohio would be of inestimable value. I would suggest the republication and the electrotyping of the list of members, each comrade being requested to make any correction of errors that now appear in the record published with our minutes. I further suggest that if any of the comrades desire the minutes in a more substantial form, that arrangements be made with the Secretary to have a certain number bound in cloth. I would further suggest that each year, before the adjournment of the reunion, a historian shall be appointed by the Executive Committee, whose duty shall be to collect statistics, history, etc., and to report at the next annual reunion. By the exercise of proper care in this matter, very much valuable and important information might be obtained and preserved. And by so doing we may very much aid our comrades in procuring pensions, and may aid the Commissioner of Pensions in preventing the allowance of fraudulent claims.

DUES.

I want to urge comrades to be prompt in the payment of dues. We greatly need the money. We might have accomplished much more if comrades had given this matter proper attention. We were compelled last year to abandon the publication of the minutes for want of funds. We hope, however, to be able in a very few days to send out the minutes of this meeting. Our dues are small, being but fifty cents per capita, but in the aggregate would give us a handsome sum.

THE DEAD.

During the past year there has not been a death in our official family, nor has the death of a comrade been reported to us. I hope in future that the comrades themselves will give this matter attention, and that the friends will report the death of any member of the Association, so that we may publish the list of the dead, and that their names may be dropped from the list of membership.

I also suggest that any comrade having inquiries, send the same to the Secretary, that the same may be published in our minutes.

My comrades, as you all know, there is still division in the ranks of the ex-prisoners of Ohio. There are two Ohio Associations. We still divide on the question of government. Our Association being purely democratic, every comrade who attends our meetings is invited to take part and participate in the business. The Cleveland Association conducts all business through delegates. We are all working with the same end in view. Our interests are identical. They are our comrades. We have rotted and froze and starved together. We can not afford to remain divided. I know many of the Cleveland Association. They are most excellent men, and worthy to be our associates. If a reunion could be agreed upon satisfactory to all, I think it might result in good.

I renew my recommendation of last year, that comrades identify themselves by the oaths of at least two comrades who were with them in prison, and for that purpose suitable form be published in our minutes.

POLITICS.

Our Association is not a political association. I hope and trust that no comrade will ever introduce politics into any of our meetings. As members of this Association we can not afford not to be politicians, but we ought not to be partisans. The question ought to be, was he a worthy soldier, an ex-prisoner? And not to what political party does he belong. We inculcate a veneration for and loyalty to good government, without regard to the party by which it is administered. A love for comrades, without asking whether they be Democrats or Republicans, Greenbackers or Prohibitionists. We can afford to and ought to stand by our friends—by comrades and men who have shown a disposition to stand by us, and to do us simple justice.

We ought to honor, prefer, and support men who have shown a disposition to aid us. Without regard to what political party they may belong to, we can afford to reward our friends. Speaking for myself, I do not hesitate to say that I will always support—when I have an opportunity, by my might and my vote—such an one that I will never vote for any one who is not willing and who does not show a disposition to do us justice. In this way only can we hope to accomplish anything. And now, my comrades, I come to that question in which we all have an equal interest, the question of pensioning, by act of Congress, ex-prisoners of war. During the last winter two bills were introduced in Congress, one in the Senate and one in the House. That in the Senate was introduced by that gallant, brave and ideal volunteer soldier, that statesman and ever-faithful friend of soldiers, General John A. Logan, of Illinois; that in the House by one of Ohio's brave and gallant soldiers, who was himself, at the battle of Gettysburgh, shot almost to death—the soldier has never had a better friend than James S. Robinson. The bill of General Logan, in the Senate, was referred to the Committee on Invalid Pensions, and, although General Logan did all in his power to get a report from that committee, he was unable to have the bill reported. In the House General Robinson was more successful; and succeeded, after tedious and vexatious delays, in getting a report. The majority, or what purported to be a majority, reported a substitute, which is entirely unsatisfactory. The minority of the committee, which was, in fact, a majority, reported in favor of the passage of the bill. I believe that with proper, judicious and well-directed efforts on our part, and with the aid of kindred associations, we will yet succeed. Our cause is just, we ask only what is due us. I have mentioned only the honorable gentlemen who introduced those bills. Our thanks are due as well to the gentlemen who signed the minority report. Among the number was General Ben. Le Fevre, of our State. All honor to our friends of every party, without regard to party, without regard to State, of every State.

And now, my comrades, I will shortly return to you the authority that one year ago you conferred upon me. I do so with a sense of regret that I have not been able to do more than I have done, with a prayer that my successor may be more efficient and more successful than I have been. I desire to return my thanks to all the officers and the members of the Executive Committee.

May the fruits of our victory ever be kept, and the flag of our country—the stars and stripes—continue to wave without molestation or harm over a united, happy and prosperous people, with one purpose, one aim and one object, and that object: Universal Liberty, Equal Rights, one Government, one Union, and one People.

After address of Judge O'Neill it was moved that the Association request the Dayton Journal to print the same in full, that the comrades might have an opportunity of purchasing a copy. The motion was adopted unanimously. The President appointed E. C. Beach, W. J. Behymer, J. B. Pumphrey and Orange Sells a committee to proceed to depot and escort the Columbus Association to headquarters upon their arrival. The Association then adjourned till 1:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY, 1:30 P. M.

The order of business being the election of officers for the ensuing year, the same was proceeded with, resulting as follows: For President, Joseph W. O'Neill, Lebanon; First Vice President, A. W. McCormick, Cincinnati; Second Vice President, Jas. B. Pumphrey, Kenton, O.; Recording Secretary, Wm. H. Roosevelt, Columbus; Corresponding Secretary, Robt. H. Kellogg, Cincinnati; Treasurer, E. C. Beach, Columbus; Chaplain, Thos. J. Sheppard, Granyille, Ohio—all of whom were re-elected, excepting David Bragg, Recording Secretary, who now belongs to the railway mail service on the Panhandle Railroad, on the line between Pittsburg and St. Louis.

E. C. Beach moved that the Association extend to David Bragg, the retiring Secretary, their hearty thanks for his earnest and energetic labors in behalf of the Association for the three years past. Before the motion was put Jas. B.

Pumphrey said he knew something of the arduous labors of Secretary, and how Comrade Bragg had worked and co-operated with the other officers to build up and perfect the organization, and that he was surely entitled to a unanimous expression of thanks. The motion was carried unanimously. Frank W. Smith, of Toledo, came forward and presented Mr. Bragg with a piece of the old stockade and a stake of the dead-line, procured by him on his last visit to Andersonville, which he knew to be genuine relics. Mr. Bragg said he would preserve them with jealous care, and leave them to his posterity. Mr. Smith said he hoped he would accept the same as appropriate and with the same feeling of good will as it was given. Mr. Bragg responded by saying that he highly appreciated the vote of thanks, and that he accepted the presents with the greatest of gratitude, and would keep them in his family as precious relics. He also spoke of the newly-elected Secretary as having suffered long at Tyler, Texas; of the assistance he had rendered him in the work of the Association the past year, while he was away from home; that he was familiar with the workings of the Association, and was in every respect entirely competent to take charge of the Secretaryship.

The president then appointed the following committee to select time and place of next meeting: David Bragg, Columbus; Jas. B. Pumphrey, Kenton; H. J. Creighton, of Springfield; Jno. D. Jones, of Portsmouth; and W. J. Behymer, of Madisonville. While the committee was preparing its report, Frank W. Smith, of Toledo, took a position on the stage and distributed several hundred small pieces of the Andersonville stockade to the comrades. The boys rallied around him, and took these mementoes with the same eagerness, apparently, as they did their rations of corn bread when they were prisoners.

W. H. Rosevelt, the Secretary, was presented with a bottle of water and sand from the Providence spring at Andersonville.

The committee on time and location of next meeting reported in favor of Chillicothe—time, first Wednesday and Thursday in August, 1885. On motion the report was adopted and committee discharged.

The President reported the following appointments for Executive Committee: W. J. Behymer, Madisonville; Chas. Aman, Plain City; J. T. Harris, Columbus; Frank Esker, Chillicothe; Daniel S. Wilder, Columbus. Association then adjourned till 7:30 p. m.

At 7:30 President announced that the exercises would consist of experiences of comrades while in Confederate prisons. Rev. Jas. Harvey, of Adamsville, was the first speaker, and was followed by Jas. B. Pumphrey, David Bragg and Comrade Scott, Co. G, 89th O. V. I.; J. T. Harris, D. S. Wilder, A. W. McCormick, Comrades Jones of Cincinnati, Keifler of Marshallville, E. C. Rockhold of Bainbridge, and Craig Hutcheson, all of whom related their experiences during prison life, which was listened to with interest. The meeting was frequently interspersed with music by the Hilliard band, and singing of army songs. After singing of doxology, and benediction by Chaplain Sheppard, the Association adjourned till Thursday morning, at which time they would join the grand street parade.

THURSDAY, JULY 31.

At 9 a. m. the Association assembled and prepared to join the parade. All who were able to march fell into the line, carrying the banner of the Association, and with shields bearing the name of the sixteen prominent Southern prisons.

After the parade the column of ex-prisoners of war repaired to their hall for a final adieu before adjournment. Comrade Bragg spoke of the frequent suggestions by many comrades of the propriety and desirability of an excursion to the different Southern Military Prisons, and moved that a committee of five be appointed in connection with the Executive Committee to correspond with the several railroad companies and procure rates for such excursion. The motion was carried and the following comrades were appointed as such committee: David Bragg, Columbus; C. C. Tittle, Cincinnati; C. M. Schofield, Athens; C. E. Howell, Dayton; F. W. Smith, Dayton. A hearty vote of thanks was given Comrade Frank W. Smith, of Toledo, for the great pleasure he had given the Association by his exhibition of oil paintings of Andersonville, and other entertainments, as also for a copy of Decoration Poems to each member, and numerous relics of the old prison. The Association then adjourned.

General hand-shaking followed, and comrades proceeded to their several homes. The general expression was that these annual reunions are growing in interest. Comrades parted with the wish that all would be spared another year to meet at Chillicothe, August, 1885.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23, 1884.

COMRADES:—I have taken much pains to have the registered members correct, as herewith printed, and correct mistakes as far as discovered. Circulars have been sent to every member of the Association, giving a copy of the card sent to us by Col. W. W. Dudley, Commission of Pensions at Washington, D. C., but not more than one in eight have responded. If there are any mistakes or omissions in the record as herein published, comrades will oblige by sending correct record at once by mail. I desire also that you send me the name and record of any ex-prisoner of war in your vicinity, who may desire to have their records filed in the department at Washington. It is to the interest of every ex-prisoner of war to have his correct record in the hands of the Commissioner of Pensions, in case of the passage of the Robinson bill in the House, or the Logan bill in the Senate, which are identically the same. The chances of the bill becoming a law this winter are more favorable than at any time heretofore. The record is valuable for another reason—such as helping comrades in finding others who were in prison with them, in obtaining the address of comrades which could probably not be obtained in any other way than by this record. I hope you will give this your attention at once.

The Ohio Association of Union ex-Prisoners of War has a better standing than ever before, and is recognized at Washington as the most flourishing and influential Association of the kind in the United States. Our membership increased at the reunion at Dayton in July last, and since, over 300 members, and every prospect of a still larger membership. The only way to secure the passage of a pension bill by Congress is to stand together in every effort to advance our just cause, and not expect a few to do all the work. Let each individual member send a petition to his representative in Congress, as well as by association. Years are rolling by, and if something is not done for us soon, it will be too late for some of us, as our ranks are getting thinner year by year. It is also requested that members having knowledge of the death of comrades during the ensuing year, to notify me of the particulars, that a record of the same may be made. We have on the rolls nearly 1500 members. It will be a pleasure to the Secretary to aid with any information he may possess comrades who may address him making inquiries.

WM. H. ROSEVELT,
Secretary.

NOTES.

There has been three members of our Association died since our reunion in June, 1883, at Newark, Ohio.

B. Mason, Ashley, Ohio, died ———

John T. Ridwell, Columbus, Ohio, died 25th April, 1884.

A. H. Hume, Columbus, Ohio, died 2d August, 1884.

J. B. Vance, Columbus, Ohio, died June, 1884.

J. Deady, Columbus, Ohio, died 18th September, 1884.

Don't forget to subscribe for the National Tribune, published at Washington, D. C., at the low figure of one dollar a year, or at the rate of two cents a copy. It is a weekly eight-page paper, of unusual size, and is entirely devoted to the interests of ex-soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the late war, giving the account of the proceedings in Congress from week to week; also sketches from comrades from all over the United States, thereby giving the address of comrades that we thought were dead. It has been the means of comrades obtaining the address of comrades, which has been a help to them in obtaining their pension, which otherwise they would not have obtained. It is the interest of every ex-soldier, sailor and marine to subscribe for this paper.

For the information of those who have not read the Robinson bill for the pensioning of ex-prisoners of war, a copy of the bill is printed herewith:

A bill for pensioning prisoners of war who were confined in Confederate military prisons during the late war:

WHEREAS, Many officers, soldiers and sailors of the Federal Army and Navy were confined in so-called Confederate prisons for an unusual length of time, suffering great hardships, and contracting disease hard to prove under existing pension laws; therefore.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on pension-roll the names of such officers, soldiers, sailors and marines, who, while in the service of the United States, and while in the line of their duty, were taken prisoners of war and as such confined in so-called Confederate prisons, between the 1st of May, 1861, and the 1st of May, 1865, as follows: All who were prisoners of war two months and less than six months, one-half pension; those who were prisoners of war six months and less than twelve months, three-fourths pension; and all such as were prisoners of war twelve months and more than twelve months, a total pension. And, furthermore, such surviving prisoners of war shall receive two dollars a day for each and every day's confinement in said Confederate Military Prisons: Provided, That such prisoner shall in each case begin from the date of the passage of this act, and shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as other pensions are now paid: And provided further, That this act shall not entitle any person to draw more than one pension, but that such survivors of the so-called Confederate Military Prisons as are entitled and are receiving a pension at the time of the passage of this act shall be entitled to the increase of their pension which this act may grant them.

Also, that said bill be amended by adding at the end of line 14 thereof the following:

" And the surviving widows of those who were prisoners as aforesaid shall be placed upon the pension-roll and be entitled to have and receive during the time they remain such widow the same amount of pension under this act that their husbands would have been entitled to receive if living."

Also, that the title of said bill be amended so that the same shall read :

" A bill for pensioning prisoners of war, and the widows of prisoners of war, who were confined in Confederate prisons during the late war."

And with these amendments your committee recommends that the bill do pass.

VIEWS OF HON. JOHN S. WISE.

I have not had an opportunity to reach the minority report or the arguments on which it is based, but I concur in the general proposition that in nine cases out of ten a soldier who was confined in prison for any length of time suffered more for his country than one who was slightly or even seriously wounded.

The report omits a class which I think ought to be mentioned. In the South there was in every State a small class of citizens liable to military duty, but who were so firm in their attachment to the Union that they not only refused to serve in the Confederate Army, but in the face of an overwhelming sentiment around them—in the face of threats, ostracism, and every social pressure—remained loyal to their faith, and suffered long imprisonment. I know of several instances of this sort, and they ought to be remembered now.

Memorial Day at Andersonville, 1884.

Written for Frank W. Smith, Toledo, Ohio, Ex-Prisoner of War at Andersonville, Millen, Blackshire and Florence, and read by him on "Decoration Day," May 30, 1884. The 14,400 flags used were prepared for this service of "Love" by the ladies of Macon, Ga., under the direction of Capt. W. W. Carnes, of the Macon Volunteers, a soldier who wore the "Gray" from '61 to '65.

O, comrades, on each lonely grave we place one flower to-day
 More sweet than any that shall bloom upon the heart of May ;
 More flush in blue, and crimson, with starry splendor crowned,
 Because the thunders raged above, the darkness hemmed around ;
 The flower that our fathers saw an hundred years before,—
 A tiny tendrill springing by the lonely cabin door,—
 'Twas sown in fears, 'twas wet with tears, till, lo, it burst to view,
 The symbol of a nation's hope,—the Red, the White, the Blue.

Ah, not in anger, or in strife, we come with laden hands,—
 The crimson retinues of war are off in other lands,—
 We bring the blossoms we have nursed to shed their honied breath,
 Where erst the reeling ranks of war unbarred the gates of death ;
 We lift the dear dead faces of our heroes to the light,
 We raise the pallid hands of theirs, we clasp and hold them tight ;
 We say : O brothers, rise and see the peace you helped to woo,
 Whose snowy pinions hover o'er the Red, the White, the Blue.

Not yours, O, silent comrades, the ecstasy of strife,
 The haughty exultations that rounds the hero's life ;
 Not yours the flash of sabers, the shouts of the advance,
 The gleam of thrusting bayonets that shiver as they glance ;
 Not yours upon the parapet your banner to unfurl,
 To die with victory on your lips, as back your feet they hurl ;
 The whisper of a kindling hope, while gaily over you
 The silken folds are dancing out,—the Red, the White, the Blue.

Nay, to your homesick vision the mask of Death was up,
 His icy breath was round, his draught was in the cup ;
 A terror walks at noonday ; the dreams that through the night,
 But take the wings of morning and vanish ere the light.
 But O, our fallen heroes, one gleam of heaven shines,
 Upon the ghastly phalanxes, along the ragged lines,
 And eyes grow dim with watching are lit with courage new,
 They've heard the tramp of comrades, with the Red, the White, the Blue.

O comrades of the prison, ye have not died in vain,
 For lo, the march of harvests where war has trod the plain!
 And lo, the breath of lillies and of rose beyond compare.
 And the sound of children chanting where the cannon rent the air!
 We clasp our hands above you, with tearful hearts to-day,
 Your brothers who have worn the blue, your brothers of the gray ;
 Our hearts are one forever, whatever men may do,
 And over all the glory of the Red, the White, the Blue.

Ah, not in strife, or anger, or idle grief we come,
 With thrill and throb of bugle, with clamor of the drum,
 We've heard the wings of healing above the war's surcease,
 And lo the Great Commander has sent the watchword "Peace!"
 Peace, to the free-born millions who live to do and dare,
 Peace, in each brave endeavor, in whatever lot they share!
 Above the triune colors, so dear to me and you,
 The splendid flower that Freedom guards,—the Red, the White, the Blue.
